

COUNSELING AND GUIDANCE (EDUCATIONAL DIAGNOSTICS) - MASTER OF ARTS

The CEP Department offers an MA in Counseling and Guidance specializing in Educational Diagnostics. Candidates admitted to the Specialist in Education (Ed.S.) or Ph.D. School Psychology Programs will have an opportunity to complete this MA degree before the completion of the Ed.S. or Ph.D. degree. Please note that this is not a stand-alone program, only students admitted to the programs mentioned above are considered for this degree. Please refer to the Catalog or the CEP department's website (<http://cep.nmsu.edu/>) for admissions and application requirements.
