

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

---

The Business Management program is designed to prepare students for entry-level supervisory or management positions or entrepreneurship opportunities. A broad-based business foundation in accounting, general management, and marketing along with practical application, technology and general education courses, prepares students for a wide range of careers.