

HOTEL, RESTAURANT AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT - UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

A minor in the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management consists of 18 or more credit hours of approved course work of which at least 12 must be numbered 300 or higher: all completed with a grade of "C-" or higher.

Please see the HRTM Director or a HRTM Faculty Mentor to approve your plan for completing the minor and approval to take specific classes. Please declare the HRTM minor in MyNMSU as soon as possible so we can track your progress toward completion does not count toward the minor. Other courses have prerequisites that you may not have taken.

Students wishing to perform a HRTM internship as part of the minor must take the full sequence of internship courses: HRTM 307 Professional Development, HRTM 408 Hospitality Internship, and HRTM 409 HRTM Internship Seminar.
