CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL STUDIES - UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

This minor focuses on world issues since 1900. Students must pass one course taken from each of the five departments listed below, plus an additional course taken from any of the five areas or a course that is approved by the Department of History, with grades of C- or higher. Courses must not be taken on an S/U basis unless they are automatically S/U for all students. Students may substitute an appropriate subtitled special topics course, an independent readings or projects course, or an Honors course in any area with the permission of the head of the department offering the courses in that area.

Requirements

Criminal Justice
Select one from the following: 3
- C J 322 Organized Crime
- C J 451 Border Violence and Justice
- C J 452 Upper World Crime
- C J 453 Women and Justice

Geography
Select one from the following: 3
- GEOG 325V New Mexico and the American West
- GEOG 328V Geography of Latin America
- GEOG 331V Europe
- GEOG 363V Cultural Geography
- GEOG 365V Urban Geography

Government
Select one from the following: 3
- GOVT 324 Environmental Policy
- GOVT 343 Congress and the Legislative Process
- GOVT 344 The American Presidency
- GOVT 345 The Supreme Court
- GOVT 354 American Indian Politics
- GOVT 360 International Relations
- GOVT 366 American Foreign Policy
- GOVT 371 Latin American Politics
- GOVT 378 U.S.-Mexico Border Politics
- GOVT 391 Constitutional Law
- GOVT 392 Civil Liberties
- GOVT 394 Judicial Process
- GOVT 469 Globalization

History
Select one from the following: 3
- HIST 302V Science in Modern Society
- HIST 331 Rebels, Guerrillas, and Terrorists in Modern Latin America
- HIST 338 World War I
- HIST 339 World War II
- HIST 356 The Mexican Revolution
- HIST 362 Afro-American History II
- HIST 365 Cold War Europe
- HIST 382V Modern Russia
- HIST 383 Germany
- HIST 390V The Holocaust
- HIST 391 Twentieth Century World History
- HIST 395 From Rule Britannia to Cool Britannia: Twentieth-Century Britain
- HIST 433 United States Labor History Since 1877
- HIST 448 Nuclear Nation
- HIST 481 Time Traveling Through New Mexico’s Past (twentieth century topics only)

Sociology
Select one from the following: 3
- SOC 361V Social Issues in the Rural Americas
- SOC 371 Race and Ethnic Relations
- SOC 374V Comparative Family Systems
- SOC 375 Social Inequality
- SOC 376V Social Change
- SOC 381 Individual and Society
- SOC 392 Juvenile Delinquency
- SOC 430 Social Movement Theory
- SOC 458V Comparative Global Family Systems
- SOC 459 Advanced Issues in Sex and Gender
- SOC 465V Environmental Sociology
- SOC 470 Sociology of Latinos/as in the United States
- SOC 474 Sociology of Organizations
- SOC 477 Sociology of Education
- SOC 479 Sociology Perspectives on the U.S.-Mexico Border
- SOC 489 Globalization

Select an additional course from any of the five areas above or a course approved by the Department of History. 1

Total Credits 18

1 with grades of C- or higher