- <sup>1</sup> MATH 1130G Survey of Mathematics is required for the degree but students may need to take any prerequisites needed to enter MATH 1130G first.
- <sup>2</sup> See the General Education (<https://catalogs.nmsu.edu/nmsu/general-education-viewing-wider-world/>) Section of the catalog to view the full list of courses that can be selected to complete this requirement.
- <sup>3</sup> See the Viewing a Wider World (<https://catalogs.nmsu.edu/nmsu/general-education-viewing-wider-world/#viewingawiderworldtext>) Section of the catalog to view the full list of courses that can be selected to complete this requirement.
- <sup>4</sup> Entrance into the Spanish sequence is determined by placement. Additional SPAN courses may be needed to meet prerequisites of 300+ level SPAN courses.
- <sup>5</sup> SPAN 364V and SPAN 365V will not count toward the major.
- <sup>6</sup> Both SPAN 340 Introduction to Spanish Linguistics and SPAN 380 Introduction to Hispanic Literature must be taken.
- <sup>7</sup> Elective credit may vary based on second language requirements, prerequisites, dual credit, AP credit, double majors, and/or minor coursework. The amount indicated in the requirements list is the amount needed to bring the total to 120 credits and may appear in variable form based on the degree. However students may end up needing to complete more or less on a case-by-case basis and students should discuss elective requirements with their advisor.
- <sup>8</sup> The number of credits needed to complete the Second Language Requirement may vary depending on language placement. As well, this requirement may be waived via conditions further described below.

Second Language Requirement

For the Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Languages with a concentration in Spanish there is a two year second language requirement, the options to complete this requirement are listed below. The number of credits that a student needs to take may vary depending on what level they come in with. Please speak with an advisor for more information as to which courses you will need to take to fulfill the second language requirement for this degree.

Option 1:

| Challenge the 1120/2210 level for the following courses: |                                   |   |
| PORT 1120   | Portuguese II                     | 3 |
| or SPAN 2210  | Spanish for Heritage Learners III |   |

Option 4:

Pass a three-credit, upper-division course (numbered 300 or above) taught in a second language by the department of Languages and Linguistics.

Option 5:

Obtain college certification of completion of three years of a second language at the high school level with a grade of C- or higher in the second-year level.

Option 6:

By obtaining certification of a working knowledge of a Native American language from the American Indian program director.

Option 7:

By obtaining, from the head of the Department of Languages and Linguistics, certification of a working knowledge of a second language if such language is not taught at NMSU.

Option 8:

In the case of a foreign student who is required to take the TOEFL exam admission, the dean will automatically waive the second language requirement.

Double Major in Foreign Languages with a Concentration in Spanish

Students must complete all University degree requirements, which include: General Education requirements, Viewing a Wider World requirements, and elective credits to total at least 120 credits with 48 credits in courses numbered 300 or above. Developmental coursework will not count towards the degree requirements and/or elective credits, but may be needed in order to take the necessary English and Mathematics coursework.

Students who are completing a different major in a different department can double major in Foreign Languages with a concentration in Spanish. Double major students are required to complete:

| Prefix  | Title   | Credits    |
|---|---|------------|
| General Education (from other major): <sup>1</sup>                                   |   | 36  |
| Viewing a Wider World (from other major): <sup>1</sup>                               |   | 6   |
| These courses do not satisfy this requirement: (FREN 365V, LING 302V, SPAN 364V, SPAN 365V) |   |            |
| Departmental/College Requirements  |   |            |
| SPAN 316or SPAN 318   | Grammar for Non-Native Speakers of SpanishGrammar for Heritage/Native Speakers of Spanish         | 3          |
| SPAN 317or SPAN 319   | Composition for Non-Native Speakers of SpanishComposition for Heritage/Native Speakers of Spanish | 3          |
| SPAN 340  | Introduction to Spanish Linguistics   | 3          |
| SPAN 380  | Introduction to Hispanic Literature   | 3          |
| SPAN Upper-Division Electives <sup>3</sup>  |   | 12         |
| Electives (to bring the total credits to 120) <sup>4</sup>                           |   | 54  |
| Total Credits  |   | 120 |

<sup>1</sup> General Education and Viewing a Wider World requirements are solidified by completing the requirements for the other major in a different department, as part of the double major program.

<sup>2</sup> Entrance into the Spanish sequence is determined by placement; some courses may not be needed if a student is placed into a higher level.

<sup>3</sup> SPAN 364V Culture and Civilization of Mexico and SPAN 365V Culture and Civilization of Spanish America will not count toward the double major.

<sup>4</sup> Elective credit may vary based on prerequisites, dual credit, AP credit, double majors, and/or minor coursework. The amount indicated in the requirements list is the amount needed to bring the total to 120 credits and may appear in variable form based on the degree. However students may end up needing to complete more or less on a case-by-case basis and students should discuss elective requirements with their advisor.

A Suggested Plan of Study for Students

This roadmap assumes student placement in MATH 1130G Survey of Mathematics and ENGL 1110G Composition I. The contents and order of this roadmap may vary depending on initial student placement in mathematics and english. It is only a suggested plan of study for students and is not intended as a contract. Course availability may vary from fall to spring semester and may be subject to modification or change.
