

LINGUISTICS - BACHELOR OF ARTS

Departmental Requirements Single Major in Linguistics

Students must complete all University degree requirements, which include: General Education requirements, Viewing a Wider World requirements, and elective credits to total at least 120 credits with 48 credits in courses numbered 300/3000 or above. Developmental coursework will not count towards the degree requirements and/or elective credits, but may be needed in order to take the necessary English and Mathematics coursework.

The strong interdisciplinary nature of the major in Linguistics lends itself to combining with other programs. Students fulfilling the requirements for the major in Linguistics are encouraged to complete either a minor or an additional major to enhance their academic pursuits.

Second Language Requirement (required - see below)
Electives (to bring the total credits to 120) ⁴
Total Credits	155-163

¹ MATH 1130G Survey of Mathematics is required for the degree but students may need to take any prerequisites needed to enter MATH 1130G first.

² See the General Education Section of the catalog to view the full list of courses that can be selected to complete this requirement.

³ See the Viewing a Wider World Section of the catalog to view the full list of courses that can be selected to complete this requirement.

⁴ Elective credit may vary based on second language requirements, prerequisites, dual credit, AP credit, double majors, and/or minor coursework. The amount indicated in the requirements list is the amount needed to bring the total to 120 credits and may appear in variable form based on the degree. However, students may end up needing to complete more or less on a case-by-case basis and students should discuss elective requirements with their advisor.

Second Language Requirement

For the Bachelor of Arts in Linguistics, there is a two-year second language requirement. The options to complete this requirement are listed below. The number of credits that a student needs to take may vary depending on what level they come in with. Please speak with an advisor for more information as to which courses you will need to take to fulfill the second language requirement for this degree.

Option 1:

Prefix	Title	Credits
Complete one of the following sequences:
French

FREN 1110	French I
& FREN 1120	and French II
& FREN 2110	and French III
& FREN 2120	and French IV

German

GRMN 1110	German I

& SPAN 2110	and Spanish III
& SPAN 2120	and Spanish IV

For Heritage Speakers

SPAN 1210	Elementary Spanish for Heritage Learners I
& SPAN 1220	and Spanish for Heritage Learners II
& SPAN 2210	and Spanish for Heritage Learners III

Option 2:

Prefix	Title	Credits
Complete the following sequence for American Sign Language (with a C- or better):

SIGN 1110	American Sign Language I	3
SIGN 1120	American Sign Language II	3
SIGN 2110	American Sign Language III	3

Completing SIGN 2110 fulfills second language requirement (with a C- or better).

Option 3:

Prefix	Title	Credits
Challenge one of the following courses:

FREN 2120	French IV	3
or GRMN 2120	German IV
or JAPN 2120	Japanese IV
or PORT 1120	Portuguese II
or SPAN 2120	Spanish IV
or SPAN 2210	Spanish for Heritage Learners III

Option 4:

Pass a three-credit, upper-division course (numbered 300 or above) taught in a second language by the department of Languages and Linguistics.

Option 5:

Obtain college certification of completion of three years of a second language at the high school level with a grade of C- or higher in the second-year level.

Option 6:

By obtaining certification of a working knowledge of a Native-American language from the American Indian program director.

Option 7:

By obtaining, from the head of the Department of Languages and Linguistics, certification of a working knowledge of second language if such language is not taught at NMSU.

Option 8:

In the case of a foreign student who is required to take the TOEFL exam admission, the dean will automatically waive the second language requirement.

Double Major in Linguistics

Students must complete all University degree requirements, which include: General Education requirements, Viewing a Wider World requirements, and elective credits to total at least 120 credits with 48 credits in courses numbered 300/3000 or above. Developmental coursework will not count towards the degree requirements and/or elective credits, but may be needed in order to take the necessary English and Mathematics coursework.

Students who are completing a different major in a separate field of study can double major in Linguistics and this program may serve students by completing this program as a double major. Double major students are required to complete the same course sequence as single majors in Linguistics except that there is no requirement to take LING 455 Research in Linguistics or similar Linguistics course with a research component, rather this is an option for double majors in Linguistics. At least 3 elective credits must be at the 400 level. No more than 6 credits may be from the department where the student is obtaining his/her major.

A Suggested Plan of Study for Students

This roadmap assumes student placement in ENGL 1110G Composition I and MATH 1130G Survey of Mathematics. The contents and order of this roadmap may vary depending on initial student placement in English and Mathematics. It is only a suggested plan of study for students and is not intended as a contract. Course availability may vary from fall to spring semester and may be subject to modification or change.
