

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES - UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

Students must pass a total of 18 credits of which at least 9 must be upper division. There are three required courses for the minor: NATV 1150G: Introduction to Native American Studies, NATV 4110: Native American Women, and NATV 2120: Native American Experience. A grade of C- or better must be obtained for each course. Students may count S grades only in courses in which all grades are S/U, and no more than 6 hours of S credit can be accepted. Please contact Dr. Georgina Badoni (gbadoni@nmsu.edu) regarding the minor.

Prefix	Title	Credits
Requirements
Required Courses ¹
NATV 1150G	Introduction to Native American Studies	3
NATV 4110	Native American Women	3
NATV 2120	Native American Experience	3
Choose 3 more courses from this list: ²
NATV 3120	An Indigenous Peoples History of the United States
NATV 4120V	Native American Visual Culture
BEST 1110G	Introduction to Borderlands and Ethnic Studies
BEST 300	Borderlands and Ethnic Studies Histories
HNRS 336V	Testimonios from the Borderlands
BEST 455	Borderlands Representations
NATV 4210	Native American Education
NATV 4220	Federal Indian Policy
NATV 4310	Indigenizing Methodologies in Native American Studies
CCST 2110G	Introduction to Chicana and Chicano Studies
AFST 1110G	Introduction to Africana Studies
PHLS 4996	Special Topics (American Indian Health)
POLS 326	Public Policy & Indigenous Communities
POLS 354	Native American Politics
HIST 413	Native American History
CJUS 414	Race, Crime and Justice
Total Credits		18

¹ Course substitutions require approval of the Director of the Native American Studies minor, Dr. Georgina Badoni gbadoni@nmsu.edu.

² 9 credits of the overall 18 credits must be upper division.