

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION - UNDERGRADUATE MINOR

---

A minor in educational leadership and administration is available to a student receiving a bachelor's degree from another department in the university. The minor in educational leadership and administration is designed to be useful to the undergraduate who is preparing to work as a teacher or staff member in educational organizations such as primary schools, community colleges and universities.

| Prefix                  | Title   | Credits   |
|-------------------------|---|-----------|
| Required Courses |   |           |
| ELAD 2340               | Multicultural Leadership in Education         | 3         |
| ELAD 2210               | Leadership and Change in Education            | 3         |
| ELAD 3210               | Current Issues In Educational Leadership      | 3         |
| ELAD 3996               | Special Topics in Education                   | 3         |
| ELAD 4120               | Principles of Education Law and Policy        | 3         |
| ELAD 4130               | Principles of Education Budgeting and Finance | 3         |
| Total Credits    |   | 18 |

How To Apply

If you wish to complete a minor in Educational Leadership and Administration (ELA), you should complete the ELA minor application/verification form and return it to the School of Teacher Preparation, Administration, and Leadership (TPAL) during the semester in which you will be completing your ELA minor coursework. This form notifies the registrar of your intention. It insures that if you complete the requirements for the minor, it will be officially recorded in your transcript.