Center for Academic Advising and Student Support

The Center for Academic Advising and Student Support (CAASS) is the central hub for academic and career advising on campus. Located in Garcia Center, CAASS advisors teach undergraduate students how to define and achieve their academic, personal, and career goals for college. Although academic advisors help students plan for registration each semester, the primary focus of advising is supporting students as they navigate the university by explaining degree requirements, clarifying policies and procedures, and informing students of resources that will support their success. All undergraduate degree-seeking students will be assigned a CAASS academic advisor. Students can find contact information for their advisor at https://advising.nmsu.edu/ or by visiting Garcia Center 129 or by calling 575-646-2941.

Cooperative Education and Internship Program

NMSU enjoys a national reputation for its Cooperative Education (Co-op) and Internship Program which contributes to students’ total educational experience. Today’s competitive employment market demands that students participate in an experiential learning experience related to their major before they complete their college degree. Through a Co-op / Internship position, students realize their career goals by integrating academic theory and practical application on the job. Co-op / Internship assignments provide an array of work experiences with employers in business, industry, government and nonprofit organizations.

All Co-op / Internship work assignments are for continuing full-time students and must be completed prior to graduation. For each semester (spring, summer & fall) that a student completes an approved Co-op / Internship, a notation is placed on his/her academic transcript. Note: In order to earn the permanent official notation on the academic transcript, required documentation must be completed and turned in on time to the Cooperative Education & Internship Program Coordinator before and after each Co-op / Internship assignment.

Students may register full-time for one or more Co-op / Internship positions throughout the U.S.; and each Co-op / Internship position will last the duration of an academic semester. While on a full-time Co-op / Internship, whether students are registered for academic credit or not, students are afforded full-time academic status with the university, which protects enrollment status, financial aid status, scholarship status, and other student eligibilities.

Students may also register part-time for a Co-op / Internship position, also known as a parallel Co-op / Internship. Employers are generally located within commuting distance of the university. While on a part-time Co-op/Internship, students work approximately 20-29 hours per week concurrently with full-time academic enrollment.

All students interested in Cooperative Education / Internships must first register with the Cooperative Education and Internship Program and complete all Co-op / Internship assignments for which they enroll. Registration for Co-op / Internship status includes an NMSU Handshake Account and an orientation session. Enrollment for a Co-op / Internship position requires enrollment forms, a mid-semester follow-up, and a program evaluation by both the student and employer.

Housing and Residential Life

Living on campus is an investment in a student’s academic and social success and overall experience as an Aggie. Residents are instantly part of the campus community – classes, the student union, activity center, library, bookstore, special events, golf course and many other campus resources are all located within walking distance. Studies show that compared to their off-campus peers, students who live on campus are more likely to: maintain higher grade point averages, use campus resources, interact more with peers and professors, and ultimately graduate within the typical four-year span.

Residency Requirement

All incoming first-time, first-year students must reside in university-operated housing or complete an exemption request as part of the campus enrollment process. First-year students will be assigned to the residence halls and must reside for two consecutive semesters to satisfy this requirement (all summer/fall or fall/spring). However, there are a few reasons approved by the Board of Regents for students to be exempted from this requirement:

- The student is living in a structured environment provided by a parent, legal guardian, or immediate family member (as defined as a grandparent or aunt/uncle). Living with an adult sibling is not included in this exemption.
- Students residing with a spouse, domestic partner, and/or dependent child(ren).
- A student is 21 years or older, enrolled exclusively in distance education, or who are active military or veterans.
- Other extenuating circumstances including financial hardship or special medical accommodation.

Students are asked to submit specific documentation to support each of the reasons presented above. Please visit housing.nmsu.edu/exemptions for more information.

Application Procedures and Acceptance

To qualify for housing, the student agrees to be enrolled continuously in at least half-time or more at either the undergraduate or graduate level during the fall or spring semesters as degree-seeking. Completed applications for housing should be submitted as early as possible, preferably one regular semester in advance. Submission of housing application indicates acceptance of the terms and conditions of the applicable agreement. Housing applications require a deposit and fee at the time of application. Certain qualifications must be met to apply for summer housing, single-student apartment and family housing.

To view the various housing options visit http://housing.nmsu.edu/options or contact the housing office at (575) 646-3202 or Housing and Residential Life MSC 3BB, PO Box 30001, Las Cruces NM 88003-8001.

Housing typically has a May 1 priority deadline for both residence hall and campus apartment contracts. Student family housing applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The university will assign accommodations subject to space available. Assignments to a particular building, type of accommodation, specific room or apartment, single room or roommate(s) are not guaranteed.

- The university reserves the right to change or cancel assignments in the interest of order, health, safety or discipline with appropriate written notice.
- The university reserves the right to deny housing to any student.

Examples of reasons for denial include, but are not limited to:

- Individuals who have felony criminal convictions that present a concern to the university community
- Individuals who have behavioral problems which may, in the opinion of the university, negatively impact the group-living environment
- Individuals who have been previously terminated from campus housing, or individuals who have poor rental histories

Student behavior expectations, rights, and responsibilities related to living in university-operated housing can be found at housing.nmsu.edu/guide.

Availability of Units for Students with Disabilities

There are a limited number of specially equipped residence hall rooms, single-student apartments and family housing units available to students with disabilities who wish to reside in campus housing. These are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Specific needs or requirements (i.e., roll-in showers, special door openers, etc.) should be discussed with the Office of Student Accessibility Services on an individual basis prior to submitting an application. Student Accessibility Services can be reached at (575)646-6840 or by email at sas@nmsu.edu

Residence halls offer furnished, mostly suite-style rooms, large lobbies and plenty of outdoor space. Each residence hall has its own unique character and environment, offering students a variety of choices while providing amenities, social interaction and academic support. Living Learning Communities (LLCs) are a benefit for members who live in the same hall and on the same floor with other students who share common academic interests. Some LLCs require enrollment in one or more academic course and/or may have additional requirements for eligibility.

More information on the extensive offerings of LLCs can be found at housing.nmsu.edu/llc. Inclusive Housing is offered in the residence halls for students who wish to participate in a living environment where a student can room with any other student regardless of sex, gender, gender identity/expression or sexual orientation. Alcohol is not permitted in the residence halls.

Applications are considered incomplete and cannot be processed if requested information and supporting documents are not provided and payment of the associated fees is not received. Family Housing applicants may select six-, nine- or twelve-month agreement, with thirty (30) day notice to vacate or request renewal, prior to an expiration of the agreement.

Family units include married couples, married couples with children, single parents with dependent children and domestic partners (as defined by NMSU Policy found at http://benefits.nmsu.edu/other/domestic-partner/).

Consideration is also given to veterans and non-traditional dependent family units. As part of the application process, a criminal history check will be conducted for all adult occupants over the age of 18. Current residents and adult occupants over the age of 18 will undergo a criminal history check no less than once a year. In addition, a rental payment history will also be conducted. By signing the application, the applicant authorizes New Mexico State University to conduct these processes.

Results of the criminal history checks and rental payment history may be shared with the applicant. Single-family homes include two bedrooms, a bath, kitchen and living room. Four-bedroom units include two bathrooms, a kitchen and living room. All units offer a stove and refrigerator and are unfurnished. The monthly rent includes utilities, cable TV, and internet connectivity. Some pets are allowed in parts of Student Family Housing, reference the pet policy at http://housing.nmsu.edu/guide.
