CREATIVE WRITING - MASTER OF FINE ARTS

Students pursuing the MFA in Creative Writing devote themselves to concentrated study and development of a chosen genre: poetry or fiction. Students

- · complete 54 hours of graduate-level coursework,
- present a book-length thesis of original work with an introduction or afterward,
- perform a public reading from the thesis, and
- · pass an oral examination in the final semester.

A maximum of 12 credits in Form and Technique count for the degree.

Prefix	Title	Credits
Required Course	work <sup>1</sup>
MFA workshop in the major genre (poetry, fiction)		12
Form and Technique courses in major genre		6
Workshop in a second genre		3
Graduate literature courses (may include 2 Form & Technique)		12
ENGL 592	Master's Theory, Practice, and Profession <sup>2</sup>	6
ENGL 594	Master's Workshop <sup>2</sup>	6
ENGL 599	Master's Thesis <sup>3</sup>	6
Elective Courses		3-12
Total Credits		54-63

Graduate assistants must take 3 hours of ENGL 571 Composition Pedagogy and Practicum, during their first semester of teaching.

<sup>3</sup> hours of ENGL 592 Master's Theory, Practice, and Profession must be taken concurrently with 3 hours of ENGL 594 Master's Workshop in each of the final two semesters of the program.

<sup>3 3</sup> hours of ENGL 599 Master's Thesis must be taken in the final semester.